BottleDrop customers help support scholarships for youth boating camps

Donation to Oregon Boating Foundation will increase access to Oregon waterways

Clackamas, Ore. -- The Oregon Beverage Recycling Cooperative (OBRC), parent organization to BottleDrop, announced a $1,000 donation to the Oregon Boating Foundation, a Newport, Ore. based nonprofit promoting access to safe boating opportunities and education for the residents of Lincoln County and beyond. The donation, generated through BottleDrop's Containers for Change program, will be used by the nonprofit to support scholarships for their youth sailing and kayaking camps.

"The Bottle Bill is all about protecting, celebrating, and accessing Oregon's natural treasures, and the Oregon Boating Foundation is helping people of all ages gain a greater appreciation of those special places," said Eric Chambers, Director of External Relations at OBRC.

BottleDrop's Containers for Change program provides Oregonians with an easy way to donate funds from their bottles and cans to excellent nonprofits operating in communities around the state. BottleDrop customers can participate by simply leaving their bag tag stickers off of their Green Bags, and dropping them off at any BottleDrop facility, like the Redemption Center in Newport, Ore.

"We're grateful for BottleDrop's support for our scholarship fund, which helps ensure that anyone can participate in our programs regardless of their financial situation," said Brian Getting, Executive Director of the Oregon Boating Foundation. "Boating is a way of life in our community, and access to safe boating opportunities is an important step to encouraging stewardship of our waterways."
